1854 John Clancy <https://www.findagrave.com/memorial/69703847/john-clancy> DOD 17 Apr 1884 Grand Rapids was a mere hamlet in the woods in 1848. It contained several small business houses, however. The only grocery was owned by John Clancy. It was located on Canal street (now Monroe avenue) directly opposite the main entrance of the Hotel Pantlind. Mr. Clancy added tools, light machinery, shelf hardware, stoves and other articles needed by the Hollanders, to his stock and the trade established with the colony proved to be the foundation of a very substantial fortune that Mr. Clancy accumulated. During the early '50s John Clancy sold his stock of merchandise and engaged in the lumber trade.
